Dear Bloomington Public Health Division,

This email is being sent to formally state that I do not intend to continue on the Advisory Board of Health for another two year term.

Due to some new commitments of my time and extensive travel plans in 2015, I would miss at least 3 meetings which drops below the mandatory attendance of 80 %.

It has been a pleasure to serve and I will miss being so well informed about Public Health in our community.

Warmest Regards,

Gregory A. Harms, DDS 10/15/2014

Hi Bonnie,

This is confirmation that I definitely would like to continue on the Board next year. Greg Harms has asked me to act as chair and I am looking forward to doing that.

Thanks,

Dave

Advisory Board/Commission Membership Application - Joe Lawless

My background in developing, managing and selling a successful business, combined with experience with my own board of directors, Bracketts Crossing advisory board and coordinating with the elected members of Lake Country Power board members has given me the insight and experience into strategic advice and planning.
My civic participation in Bloomington has consisted of volunteering at Bloomington Creekside Center 'City Diner', serving lunch, and assisting 'set-up' of the Bloomington farmers market on Saturday mornings. I have also enjoyed being a District 6 referee for youth hockey.
My background is business management and housing, with my interest being the pursuit of durable, healthy housing.
I would like to get more involved with the community I live in, apply my experience to assist in planning and meet new and interesting people.

Coldwell Banker Burnet, Edina, MN — March 2013 - Present
REALTOR
Achieved over $3 million in sales in 18 months. Instructor; Developing curriculum for Minneapolis Area Association of REALTOR'S continuing education (CE's) 'A REALTOR'S Guide to Home Inspections and Building Science"
Lawless Company, Inc., Bloomington,MN — January 2004 - January 2013
Home Inspector & Small Business Consultant
Providing enhanced home inspections, home consulting services to home buyers and homeowners. Expertise in building science, energy efficiency, indoor air quality and the occupant's health as it relates to the environment of the structure.
Shelter Supply, Inc., Lakeville,MN — 1985 - December 2003
President/General Manager
Co-founder of Shelter Supply, Inc., Products and Technology for Energy Efficient, Healthier Homes. A national wholesale distribution and educational training company. Developed and pioneered energy efficient, building practices in Minnesota and nationally resulting in the State of Minnesota adoption of a new energy code in July, 1999.
• Management; Motivated, guided and coordinated the successful growth of the company from 3 employees to 24 and created a rewarding and fun atmosphere. Achieved double digit yearly sales growth over a 12 year period, which exceeded $ 13 million in sales at the time of the sale of the business in 2000, while managing budgets exceeding $ 2 million with concurrent yearly profitability.
• Diversification & Growth; Successfully created divisions within the company to capture opportunities in product representation (Shelter Sales) and a national training and education program for government agencies, utilities and builders on energy efficient building practices (Shelter Source
• Product Development; Researched and developed new products, re-branded existing products and negotiated and acquired distribution and representation rights to innovative, energy efficient products. Established the vanEE brand of residential mechanical ventilation (HRV) systems as the number one selling HRV on the market, capturing and maintaining over 85% of the market over a period of a decade.
• Key account management; Developed and coordinated authentic partnerships with manufacturers, mechanical contractors, builders and utility companies in the pursuit of building energy efficient, healthier, more durable homes. Built successful partnerships with Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEM) such as 3M company (patented an exterior joint sheathing tape with 3M), Broan Manufacturing, Panasonic Corporation, Venmar Ventilation, H Window Company and distributed and represented brands such as vanEE Ventilation Systems, Panasonic low-sone fans, 3M-Construction Division adhesives and tape and H Windows.
• Marketing; Developed and executed a unique 'Dealer Marketing Program' by establishing an in-house graphic design service exclusive for Shelter dealers, including customized brochures and marketing material which evolved into a profit center for marketing services to manufacturers and builders. Increased public's knowledge of indoor air quality issues and energy efficient construction practices by creating advertising campaigns with multiple local and national publications including WCCO radio and KARE 11 television with the Minnesota Timberwolves.
• Researched and Implemented company succession plan by strategically planning, then negotiating and coordinating company buyout by Lake Country Power, Grand Rapids, MN, January 1, 2000.
