

Request for Council Action

Originator Community Services	Item Community Center Task Force Appointments
Agenda Section Organizational Business	Date October 19, 2015

Description

The City Council is asked to appoint a task force to provide Council with the information, input and recommendations necessary to determine the potential future of a new community center in Bloomington. The composition of the Community Center Task Force is as follows:

Members:

- City Council representative
- Advisory Board of Health representative – Joshua Korthouse (alternate: Cindy McKenzie)
- Human Rights Commission representative – Dennis Kane (alternate: John Doble)
- Parks, Arts and Receptions Commission representative – Lenny Schmitz (alternate: Jim McCarthy)
- General community representatives (2)
- School District representative
- Creekside Senior Program representatives (1 female + 1 male)
- Business representative
- Diverse community representative
- Youth representatives (2)
- Youth athletic organization representative

Staff:

- Parks and Recreation Manager – Randy Quale
- Human Services Manager – Lorinda Pearson
- Community Services Director – Diann Kirby

As noted above, the Advisory Board of Health, Human Rights Commission and Parks, Arts and Recreation Commission have nominated representatives and alternates from their boards. Staff to the task force are also listed above.

The City Council is asked to appoint a member and an alternate for each of the positions listed above that have openings.

Applications for the citizen representatives on the task force are attached. Also attached is a complete list of the applicants along with the positions for which they qualify. Bloomington Schools has been asked to recommend youth representatives.

Requested Action

The City Council is requested to appoint representatives and alternates to the Community Center Task Force for the positions listed above.

Attachments: