

Request for Council Action

Originator Parks and Recreation	Item Parks and Recreation Month Proclamation
Agenda Section Consent	Date 6/27/2016

Description

Bloomington resident and Vice Chair of the Parks, Arts & Recreation Commission, Jim McCarthy will be accepting the Proclamation designating July as Parks and Recreation Month. One of the primary functions of the Parks, Arts & Recreation Commission is to review and evaluate park and recreation programs and how these programs can and do fulfill the existing and future needs of the City. The Parks & Recreation Division offers a multitude of recreational programs, has excellent park facilities, and manages 97 parks. They, along with the National Recreation & Park Association, wish to offer additional support to the U.S. House of Representatives in their designating July as Parks and Recreation Month.

Requested Action

Mayor read and present the Parks and Recreation Month Proclamation declaring the month of July as Parks and Recreation Month.
