On May 10, 2016, Councilmember Cynthia Bemis Abrams provided the City Manager and the City Council with notice of her resignation from the Bloomington City Council, effective June 4, 2016, due to planned change of residency to a place outside of the City of Bloomington.

Bloomington City Charter at section 2.05 sets forth the process for filling a vacancy by appointing a replacement City Councilmember to serve the remainder of Councilmember Bemis Abrams' unexpired term.

There were 32 applicants with 29 interviewed (2 withdrew and one no show at the interview) on July 6, 2016. On July 8, 2016, Council selected candidate(s) to be interviewed at the July 11, 2016 regular Council meeting.

The Council must appoint an eligible person to fill the vacant office within 45 days of the resolution declaring vacancy (adopted 5-0 on June 6, 2016). If the Council fails to make an appointment within 45 days, or if before the end of the 45 days, votes three times on the appointment and is unable to fill the vacancy, the Mayor must, within 15 days, appoint an eligible person to fill the vacancy.
