Neighborhood Commercial Area Study Presentation

Date
7/12/2016

Description

Attached is the Bloomington Neighborhood Commercial Area Study. The Planning Division worked with the HRA, Planning Commission and City Council in 2016 to design the study, which was performed by Planning and HRA staff.

Staff are seeking comments from the HRA Board regarding the study methodology and findings, and to determine appropriate next steps. Representatives from the Planning Division will be at the meeting to provide information and analysis. The study findings will also be presented to the Planning Commission and City Council in the near future.
