

Artistry by the Numbers

2015-2016

The following figures demonstrate the scope of our programming and the large number of people we engage. All figures are for the 2016 fiscal year (July 1, 2015 - June 30, 2016), and the first two "dollars" numbers are unaudited/preliminary.

1,077,540	Dollars earned from ticket sales, class fees, sales of art, and other earned sources
689,782	Dollars and in-kind support received from institutional and individual donors
50,341	Visits inspired by exhibits in the Inez Greenberg Gallery
25,636	Tickets issued to Schneider Theater performances
8,585	Volunteer hours contributed
6,768	Children and adults served through arts education partnerships
5,313	Tickets issued to Black Box Theater performances
2,861	Season tickets issued for Schneider Theater productions
661	Registrations processed for on-site adult classes and workshops
407	Season tickets issued to Black Box Theater performances
350	Free theater tickets given to children, families + other underserved audience members
318	Registrations processed for on-site youth classes and workshops
170	Talented volunteers made our programming possible
137	Visual artists offered work for sale in the Rose Schneider Gift Shop + Gifts in the Gallery
131	Visual artists exhibited work in the Inez Greenberg and Atrium galleries
117	Actors brought our productions to life
70	Teaching artists nurtured and challenged students of all ages
35	Crew members and other theater contractors labored behind the scenes
32	Theater directors, designers, and choreographers led our productions
30	Musicians played the scores for our Schneider Theater musicals
14	Exhibits graced the Inez Greenberg and Atrium galleries
8	Theater productions enlivened the stages