

Request for Council Action

Originator Human Services	Item American Indian Heritage Month Proclamation
Agenda Section Introductory	Date 10/24/2016

Description

The month of November is American Indian Heritage Month, which commemorates the rich and diverse culture of American Indian people. The Bloomington Human Rights Commission will honor American Indian Heritage Month throughout November by hosting the “Why Treaties Matter” exhibit, sponsoring two Coffee with the Curator sessions, and by holding a Community Program.

Item created by: Lorinda Pearson, Human Services Division Manager and Human Rights Commission Staff Liaison
Presenter: Dennis Kane, Chairperson of the Bloomington Human Rights Commission
Jim Jones, Curator of the “Why Treaties Matter” exhibit and interim Director for the MN American Indian Affairs Council

Requested Action

Mayor read and present the American Indian Heritage Month Proclamation.

Attachments:

American Indian Heritage Month Proclamation Memo
American Indian Heritage Month Proclamation
American Indian Heritage Month Informational Flyer